6. GROUNDS FOR RELIEF

Ground 1: State briefly the ground on which you base your claim for relief. For example, "the trial court imposed an illegal enhancement." (If you have additional grounds for relief, use a separate page for each ground. State ground 2 on page four. For additional grounds, make copies of page four and number the additional grounds in order.)

California Penal Code: 1385 Discretion
Case law. People V. Garcia (1999).

a. Supporting facts:

Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law. If you are challenging the legality of your conviction, describe the facts upon which your conviction is based. If necessary, attach additional pages. CAUTION: You must state facts, not conclusions. For example, if you are claiming incompetence of counsel you must state facts specifically setting forth what your attorney did or failed to do and how that affected your trial. Failure to allege sufficient facts will result in the denial of your petition. (See In re Swain (1949) 34 Cal.2d 300, 304.) A rule of thumb to follow is: who did exactly what to violate your rights at what time (when) or place (where). (If available, attach declarations, relevant records, transcripts, or other documents supporting your claim.)

I was convicted and sentenced to 20 years with "3" Strikes. This is indeed a 14th Amendment right violation. An 8th Amendment right violation as well as a 6th Amendment right violation. This is a flagrant abuse of 1385 Discretion. The 9th circuit affirmed and the supreme court upheld and severely cautioned the 4th and 2ND District as to these Discretion Abuses figuratively this an unfair and illegal Sentence Structer. The trial court showed its exercising of 1385 discretion in a arbitrary capricious or patently absurd manner that resulted in a illegal Sentencing Structer.

b. Supporting cases, rules, or other authority (optional):

(Briefly discuss, or list by name and citation, the cases or other authorities that you think are relevant to your claim. If necessary, attach an extra page.)

ON GROUND ONE :

Also there was no emphasis placed on the fact this was a first offense there by blatantly disregarding the 9th circuits appeal to the Second district and the 4th district, revealing the inevitability of reversal or meritorious grounds for reversal, the caution was placed on the 4th district to reveal a absurd pattern of 1385 discretion abuses.

8th Amendment right violation:

a. Supporting facts:

As a first offense the sentencing Judge overarched his Judicial power's. No where in the history of California Sentencing Law is there a case where a defendant being a first former has entered into arbitration as to "3" Strikes actually Sticking or being a permanent part of a plea agreement: SE: wilding V, State Of California - (1996) 4th Dis. People V, Trower, 6 dis. Mo, people V, Brown 2003 CA1 Lexis 6516 CCA1, Aug, 27. This also is a form of Coercion in that this sentence "Currently" and any other conviction would be mandated: it is a due process error, this sentence must be set aside and reconsidered! it Cannot and Will NOT Stand. This is reversable error and it is substantial. And the Law ~~does~~ does mandate such relief as is equivalent to the damages accrued, in this paticular instance the defendant has suffered invariable under such illegal sentencing arbitration, in all actuality a misdemeanor offense was committed against the defendant if not only for the sole Purpose of future convictions this sentence must be vacated, and relief ordered. - Respectfully.

b. Supporting cases, rules, or other authority:

GROUND THREE: 14th Amendment right Violation.

"Supporting Facts": clearly the sentencing structure indicates reversible error. The damage accrued is accumulative, and if not addressed incurable: My constitutionally protected & Inalienable guaranteed the 14th Amendment right was violated when the sentencing judge did not full fill the statutes criteria to the fullest extent of the LAW! Obviously I was not protected under my 14th Amendment right's. This is nothing short of a ~~de~~ due process violation, again the sentence must be set aside and reconsidered. Respectfully, Defendant would also pray the Courts take into consideration the defendant has already accrued damage personally suffering under said arbitration. The damage ~~was~~ accrued fall under multiple Jurisdictions, it also fall under civil procedure the defendant however shall be satisfied with the finding of reversible error, and sent back to the trial judge for a setting aside of this ~~illegal~~ illegal arbitration and resentencing, with substantial relief. Any thing else under these circumstance would be unacceptable: The 4th District continues to blatantly disregard the 9th circuit Court of Appeals resprimands and cautions.

GROUND FOUR: 6th Amendment Right Violation:

Supporting FACTS: Obviously Court room administration was breached, fundamentally there is no court room administration if this inalienable right is obstructed, This is the apex of "Due process" if all entities in the court of Law are not working conclusively for this protected right. There is and was No Justice, The sentence there fore must be reversed: this is also strongly up-held in the Commission on Judicial performance, These flagrant right violation actually teeter on judicial misconduct, no one given attorney could be oblivious to such blatant disregard to constitutionally protected rights, The supreme court it Self has severely cautioned against such systematic erosion of federally protected right's. We addressed the procedural prerequisite for the declaration of against penal interest exception.
